

Duality, A Stitching Retreat

January 28 - 30, 2011

Come spend a weekend with Kathy & Jeanette Rees on the beautiful white sands of Pensacola Beach, Florida overlooking the Gulf Coast. Two days of instruction with two teachers!

“Duality” is a joint design venture especially for this weekend retreat and is a blend of the differing styles of mother & daughter. The weekend will feature the class project but will also include time to relax on your own and/or spend time with other needleworkers.

Students will stitch on a partially line-drawn canvas with a variety of threads in both solid and overdyed colors. Batik fabric will be attached to the canvas as well. A large number of color options will be available at the first class session.

Hotel stay includes free breakfast buffet and lunches during class time will be catered in leaving you plenty of time for stitching and relaxing.

Duality Registration Fee

Includes Class Kit and Instructions, 2 Day Class, Goodie Bag, Meet & Greet Reception Friday Evening, Lunch Sat & Sun, Dinner Saturday, and a few surprises!

Students will furnish 13x13 stretcher bars, tacks, normal stitching supplies, and magnification if necessary.

Teacher Bios

Jeanette Rees started out as a self-taught needle worker and owned a Bernina shop and then a needlework shop (Needle Delights) for 13 years. She teaches classes and workshops at EGA Regional Seminars and local Chapters with a focus on dimensional embroidery & canvas work. She has been accepted to teach at EGA National Seminar 2011. She has published designs in both cross stitch and canvas pieces.

Kathy Rees learned to cross stitch at 14 and has never stopped using a needle. After earning a business degree and working in the corporate world for 8 years, she moved to Florida in 1993 from California to work in the family business Needle Delights. After reopening the shop on her own after major damage from Hurricane Ivan in 2004, she starting designing counted needlepoint. She has taught a variety of classes at Needle Delights for 15 years as well as for local EGA groups.
